

tasveer
presents

SEATTLE'S 2ND
INDEPENDENT
SOUTH ASIAN FILM FESTIVAL

SEPTEMBER 14-18, 2005

*pushing the edges:
south asia in a new frame*

The 2nd ISAFF brings to Seattle the urban hum of Karachi, lush mountains of Bhutan, Asian vibes from London, and far-reaching corners of South Asia. ISAFF pushes the edges with its challenging and distinctive films, forums, and festivities - designing a new frame for South Asia.

FESTIVAL INFORMATION

DATES:

September 14-18, 2005

COST:

$8 General Admission

$6 Students w/ ID

VENUE:

Broadway Performance Hall

1625 Broadway Ave.

Seattle, WA 98122

Ticket Window

206-325-6500

www.ticketwindowonline.com

For additional ticketing options and more festival information please visit:

www.tasveer.org

FESTIVAL LAUNCH PARTY

AUGUST 27th @7:00 pm

An evening filled with film, cultural performances, and dance party. Program includes the Oscar Winner short film "The Little Terrorist" and a special performance by nationally acclaimed comedienne Vijai Nathan.

$18 (advance), $22 (door)
Seattle Art Museum
100 University Ave
Seattle, WA 98101

Thanks to

afghanistan bangladesh bhutan india maldives nepal pakistan sri lanka

Produced by

tasveer

A Northwest not-for-profit organization dedicated to promoting independent South Asian cinema.

Fiscal Sponsor

NORTHWEST
ASIAN AMERICAN THEATRE

Made Possible by

Humanities
WASHINGTON

Media Sponsor

PlanetGuru.com
The Spirit of South Asia

Design by

in vision
in-visionproductions.com

Thanks to

SEATTLE
PEOPLE'S FUND

Mayor's Office of ARTS &
CULTURAL AFFAIRS