

Pakistan's Rockstar
Salman Ahmad
Comes to Seattle!

Wednesday October 3rd, 2007 7pm

Salman Ahmad, founder of South Asia's best known rock band Junoon, is an internationally recognized celebrity. Ahmad has been a passionate promoter of peace between India and Pakistan, as well as, between the West and the Muslim world. His documentaries, "Rockstar and the Mullahs" on music in Islam and "It's My Country Too" on Muslim-Americans have appeared on PBS and BBC.

In Seattle, Ahmad will perform and speak on the Opening Night of Seattle's 4th Independent South Asian Film Festival.

more info: www.tasveer.org
 venue: broadway performance hall
 1625 broadway ave, seattle

Seattle's 4th Independent South Asian Film Festival takes place on October 3-7. ISAFF is produced by Tasveer and made possible by City of Seattle Department of Neighborhoods.

Pakistan's Rockstar
Salman Ahmad
Comes to Seattle!

Wednesday October 3rd, 2007 7pm

Salman Ahmad, founder of South Asia's best known rock band Junoon, is an internationally recognized celebrity. Ahmad has been a passionate promoter of peace between India and Pakistan, as well as, between the West and the Muslim world. His documentaries, "Rockstar and the Mullahs" on music in Islam and "It's My Country Too" on Muslim-Americans have appeared on PBS and BBC.

In Seattle, Ahmad will perform and speak on the Opening Night of Seattle's 4th Independent South Asian Film Festival.

more info: www.tasveer.org
 venue: broadway performance hall
 1625 broadway ave, seattle

Seattle's 4th Independent South Asian Film Festival takes place on October 3-7. ISAFF is produced by Tasveer and made possible by City of Seattle Department of Neighborhoods.

Pakistan's Rockstar
Salman Ahmad
Comes to Seattle!

Wednesday October 3rd, 2007 7pm

Salman Ahmad, founder of South Asia's best known rock band Junoon, is an internationally recognized celebrity. Ahmad has been a passionate promoter of peace between India and Pakistan, as well as, between the West and the Muslim world. His documentaries, "Rockstar and the Mullahs" on music in Islam and "It's My Country Too" on Muslim-Americans have appeared on PBS and BBC.

In Seattle, Ahmad will perform and speak on the Opening Night of Seattle's 4th Independent South Asian Film Festival.

more info: www.tasveer.org
 venue: broadway performance hall
 1625 broadway ave, seattle

Seattle's 4th Independent South Asian Film Festival takes place on October 3-7. ISAFF is produced by Tasveer and made possible by City of Seattle Department of Neighborhoods.

Pakistan's Rockstar
Salman Ahmad
Comes to Seattle!

Wednesday October 3rd, 2007 7pm

Salman Ahmad, founder of South Asia's best known rock band Junoon, is an internationally recognized celebrity. Ahmad has been a passionate promoter of peace between India and Pakistan, as well as, between the West and the Muslim world. His documentaries, "Rockstar and the Mullahs" on music in Islam and "It's My Country Too" on Muslim-Americans have appeared on PBS and BBC.

In Seattle, Ahmad will perform and speak on the Opening Night of Seattle's 4th Independent South Asian Film Festival.

more info: www.tasveer.org
 venue: broadway performance hall
 1625 broadway ave, seattle

Seattle's 4th Independent South Asian Film Festival takes place on October 3-7. ISAFF is produced by Tasveer and made possible by City of Seattle Department of Neighborhoods.